The attention of visitors is especially called to the beautiful piece on Exhibition at the fair two days. of sculptuary entered by Messrs Fisher, Amis & Co., marble dealers This gem of art took the premium at Memphis over quite a number of exhibitors from Italy. The expression on the face of the child is more than lifelike and cannot be excelled.

There is on exhibition a jar of almonds, grown in Capt W D Heffin's yard in this place, and are as fine tasted as can be bought in any confectionery.

The Howe Sewing Machine is on exhibition, and the agent will take pleasure in showing its manner of operation to any one visiting the Fair.

The most wonderfu' specimen of industry and skill is presented in a miniature representation of the Sprite's Castle in England, made of over 6,000 different pieces of cork presenting the most perfect and beautiful mechanism. The premium was awarded to R G Hood, the maker, at the New York and Memphis Fairs.

An elegant piece of transfer work on linen excited the warmest admiration of the visitors. The work was made by a young lady of this county, but we were not permitted to learn her name, but will do so befo. e the Fair closes.
